The Latest Irregularities

New York April 7—Oliver I Searing, late [illegible] of the Montauk Insurance Company of Brooklyn, [illegible] suddenly for California the other day. He [is re]ported to be a defaulter to the amount of $10,000 [illegible] he has expended in works of art [illegible] have been turned over to the company.

An Interesting Suit.

[Louis]ville, April 7—Louis Marks served an in[junc]tion to-day restraining the Bank from paying [illegible] Loube $18,000 drawn in the [illegible] on the ground that Loube bought the ticket with the firm's money.

The Lost Steamship.

New York April 8—The steamship [illegible] was [insur]ed at one and a quarter millions and was in [illegible] French Company at about two thirds her [value]. Her cargo was very valuable—chiefly silk [illegible] and sardines. The agents think that the [val]ue of her cargo was not less than one million [illegible] insured.

Murder.

New York April 8—This morning Dorsey Har[illegible] a well known pugilist, quarreled in Clark's [saloon], on Amity street, with Wm. Clough, son of [illegible] Clough and was fatally shot. Clough [esc]aped.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The New French Minister at Washington.

Washington, April 7—Bertholdy, the new French [Minister] presented his credentials to the President [to-d]ay with the usual formalities.

The Army Bill.

Chicago, April 8—Washington dispatches say the [bill] of the Military Committee reducing the army [came up in] regular order to-day, but was crowded out of [its place] by the currency bill. Members of the [Com]mittee are of opinion that the House will pass [a bill] more sweeping in its reductions than the one [report]ed. The pending bill gives to heads of the [illegible] staff departments the rank and pay of Brig[adier]-Generals. It is thought that the rank of these [offic]ers will finally be fixed as Colonels. In many [oth]er respects the rank of staff officers will be some[what] [illegible]

[illegible] Grumbles a Little.

Washington, April 8—General Butler appeared [before] the Ways and Means Committee. He com[plain]ed that witnesses had been examined in rela[tion] to his private affairs while he was not present [and] had not received notification that such testimo[ny] would be taken.

[illegible] explained that all reference to him (But[ler]) in the testimony had been incidental. The [Commit]tee could not know in advance what wit[nesses] would testify.

[illegible] Butler that Sanborn would be ex[amin]ed to-morrow and would probably be ques[tion]ed with regard to his operations during the war, when he [held] some commission under Butler.

Butler said he could not be present to-morrow [an]d the only office Sanborn held was that of [Dispatch] Messenger to keep order on a boat running [betw]een Baltimore and Fortress Monroe.

[Soli]citor Banfield made an additional statement [to the] committee defending his official acts in the [matter] of Sanborn contracts against reflections on [him], which he supposed were made by Secretary [Rich]ardson and Assistant Secretary Sawyer.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

[illegible] Disaster—Steamship Abandoned.

Queenstown, April 7—The steamer [illegible] from New York, March 28th arrived this morning, and [brou]ght the first officer and salvage crew rescued [from] the French Transatlantic Company's steamer [Europe], which they endeavored to save, but were [force]d to abandon in a sinking condition. The [first] officer of the steamer Greece reports that he [illegible] the Europe on the 2d of April in a sink[ing] condition, took off the passengers and crew [num]bering 400 and proceeded on her way to New [Yo]rk. The officer, with a crew of twenty, remained [on] the [illegible]. On the 4th the [illegible] took them in [tow] but a heavy sea parted the hawsers and as [the w]ater constantly gained they concluded to abandon the Europe, and were safely taken on board the [illegible]. The Europe sailed March 7th from Havre for New York.

Application for a New Trial for the Tichborne Claimant.

London, April 8—11:30 A. M.—Mr Cross, Home [Secre]tary, having received an application for a new [tri]al of the Tichborne claimant, has replied by ask[ing] on what legal grounds the demand can be made.

Disraeli to be Married.

It is rumored that Disraeli is to marry the Countess [Do]wager of Chesterfield. The Post denies the story. A special from Berlin to the Standard says in con[sequ]ence of the slow recovery of Bismarck it is [prop]osed to [illegible] Camphausen Vice Chancellor, [illegible] the functions of Chancellor until the re[cover]y of Bismarck.

Arrived, at Queenstown, bark [illegible] from San Francisco, and ship [illegible] from Portland, Oregon.

Sailed, from Hamburg, bark [illegible] for San Fran[cisco].

The steamship Ohio of the Baltimore and [illegible] line has put into Falmouth with a [illegible] shaft broken.

[Livi]ngstone to be Buried by the People of the United Kingdom.

[L]ONDON, April 8—The British Government will defray [th]e expenses of Livingstone's funeral, which will [tak]e place at Westminster Abbey.

[illegible] the Custom-House Business.

[illegible], April 7—The town of [illegible] and [illegible] ent to the Carlists. The Carlists have [illegible] a Custom house at La Junquera.

[illegible] of a Distinguished Artist

[illegible], April 7—Karl Bach, the celebrated [illegible] painter, is very sick with cholera.

CANADA

Riel, the Manitoban Murderer

Ottawa, April 7—It is not known whether Riel will take his seat to-morrow but if he does he will be arrested, and if he choose to stand trial will be [sent] to Manitoba for that purpose. It is regarded as certain that the Government will [illegible] Precautionary measures to prevent any [illegible] disturbance to-morrow are being taken.

WEST INDIES.

Proclamation from the New Captain-General.

Havana, April 7—Concha has issued a procla[ma]tion to the citizens of Cuba in which he says the war is confined to sparsely populated portions of the island. That it may continue some time, but the populous and healthy portions of the island will be protected from ravages and the integrity of the ter[ri]tory preserved. He exhorts the people to maintain composure, promises the severest policy toward the enemies of Spain, protection of her friends and jus[tice] to all. He considers the close union of Spain [ne]eds imperative under the circumstance and will not permit the existence of political parties [illegible] [illegible]. He declares his conviction that peace will be restored under the flag of Spain and [illegible] wait for a more peaceful time to settle the [illegible] question of slavery.

Advices from Kittitass Valley, W. T., say the people over there all seem to be getting along quite well. They are going ahead [illegible] ing their farms and expect to have [illegible] country some time, but at present there is no money there. Wheat, cows, calves, [illegible] lumber and pigs are all a legal tender, money be[ing] unknown. The people over there are in [a] bad fix—they are entirely out of reach of [a mar]ket for anything except their stock. They had [h]oped great things of the Northern Pacific Railroad but as yet it has only been a [illegible] to them—it has done them no good and has harmed them by withdrawing one-half of the land in the valley from settlement. But soon—we hope not at a very distant day—Kittitass will be a good county to live in; at present it has some serious drawbacks, which we have already mentioned.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

BY TE[LEGR]APH TO THE O[REGONI]AN

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

San Francisco, April [illegible]—This morning [illegible] terrible tragedy was enacted in this city at a boarding house on Fourth street near Mont[illegible]. Two young men, Caldwell and Maxey, were [r]oommates in the house. About 7 o'clock reports of a pistol were heard by an officer who came to the house, broke open the door and found Caldwell in bed dead—shot through the head—and Maxey on the floor shot through the side and mortally wounded. He was able to speak and said Caldwell shot him and afterward himself, but as the pistol was near him it is believed he first shot Caldwell and then himself. Maxey was still alive a few minutes ago. He had been employed in a [illegible] store on Montgomery street near Pine, and Caldwell was conductor on the North Beach and Mission street cars. It is not yet known what was the cause of the terrible affair.

The Police Court to-day fined Rev. Father Powers $40 for beating the insane woman Betty Brown in St. Patrick's Church. He paid the fine promptly and was released from custody.

Overland passengers—W. C. Griswold, Salem, Oregon.

San Francisco, April 8—At last accounts N. P. Tenant, who tried to kill himself by taking poison this afternoon, was alive. His physician thinks he will recover.

John H. Richardson, who shot himself at Petaluma to-day, was well known in this city.

The Consolidated Amador Mining Company paid a dividend of [illegible] cents per share to-day. The Crown Point declared a dividend of $4 per share—$400,000—payable Saturday.

San Francisco, April 8—At last accounts Maxey, who shot Caldwell and then himself this morning, was still alive but no hopes for his recovery. He is partially paralyzed and sinking rapidly.

A fire on [illegible] street near Stockton to-night destroyed a Chinese cigar and junk store. Loss about $1,000.

Coroner's jury to-night rendered a verdict that Michael [illegible] came to his death by a pistol shot fired by E. M. Hopkins. Hopkins was present and took the matter very coolly.

Interior California.

Sacramento, April 8—John Kruse, a German aged about [illegible], employed on the schooner Clara for 11 months past, was murdered this morning about 1 o'clock on Front street. The police have arrested Philip Cotta and Domingo Estrado. Estrado was held to answer before the grand jury in October last for grand larceny of a certificate of deposit, the property of one Annetta Parra. He has a sister living in San Francisco. Cotta and Estrado accused each other of the deed. Kruse was stabbed seven times in the melee. Kruse got hold of the knife and stabbed Estrado in the leg. He fought hard. The murder was committed all for the sum of $7.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Jacksonville, April 8—On Monday evening last, three Chinamen working in Ben George's claim on Farris gulch, in this county, leading into Applegate creek about 15 miles from this place, were caught by a caving bank and instantly killed. Their remains were dug out, brought to this place and given burial in the Jacksonville cemetery to-day, amidst great pomp and ceremony by their countrymen, many whites attending through curiosity to witness the pagan rites.

Jacksonville, April 8—The news of the nominations is received here. The ticket, as far as heard from, meets with approval among Republicans. Bonfires are burning and anvils firing. Jackson county will surprise the Oregonians on the day of the election.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

La Conner, April 8—Full election returns from Kootenai, B. C., and wayside polling places arrived at Yale via Hope yesterday. The returns are as follows: Dewdney, 14; Chisholm, 7; making total vote in district, Dewdney 89, Chisholm 20.

Weather mild. Fraser river rising slowly. Work on Sawmill [illegible] rock completed. The work on the Sisters rock has been suspended. The steamer Onward took down quite a number of miners en route for Cassiar. Advices from the canyon report the road almost impassable for teams on account of the depth of snow.

THE TERRITORIES

A post of G. A. R. is being organized at Walla Walla.

There has been no rain in Walla Walla valley for four weeks and the roads are getting dusty.

The warm weather has thawed out the base ballists of Lewiston and a challenge has been sent the Lapwai nine.

Walla Walla is in want of butter for home consumption, notwithstanding the vast area of grazing country and numerous herds of cattle right around her.

The editor of the Golden Age, who is a saucy fellow, in closing his first volume, says: If we have hurt any one's feelings or prospects the past year we're sorry, and if they will come around back of the office some night we'll take it out of them and be friends.

At the next term of Court at Walla Walla criminal business bids fair to be quite lively. There are now 9 prisoners in jail and [illegible] out on bail. Fifteen criminal cases are docketed. Jail room is getting scarce and it is hoped that those who incline to violate the law will wait until the batch on hand is disposed of, unless they are prepared to give bail. Otherwise the prisoners are liable to be crowded.

The Walla Walla Statesman says: Now that the boats have resumed their trips we may look for an improvement in all branches of trade. For four long months money has been steadily flowing out of the country until we are literally drained. Now the tide will turn this way and money will be brought here to invest in stock and produce, thus serving to relieve the pressure upon the money market.

On Wednesday of last week Badger Boy, [illegible]'s fine black trotting stallion at Walla Walla, had his under jaw broken by a kick from another horse while fighting. This was probably the most valuable horse in Washington Territory and the owner has refused [illegible] for him. There [illegible] hope that his life may be saved, but it is probable the injury will so [illegible] his mouth that he never can be driven [illegible]

A Colorado paper has the following [illegible] [illegible] is dead. He has been a conspicu[ous] [illegible] in his day, having seen the Julesburg, [illegible] Central, South Platte and [illegible] [illegible] Railroads surveyed with his own eyes [illegible]

[illegible] of New Mexico [illegible] State. [illegible] probably [illegible] twenty or thirty [illegible] [illegible] Colorado was [illegible] for reasons which would apply with greater force to-day against New Mexico. The latter has a small population and very much mixed. It is migratory and unstable. [illegible] has been [illegible] of trade [illegible] supplies for mining and pastoral re[illegible] traders and Government [illegible] Territory [illegible] people nothing under heaven is [illegible] State organization except taxation and the buying and selling of offices. [illegible] Colorado are prosperous. [illegible] New Mexico will get along for the next five or ten years under the present Territorial organization.

THE MASSACHUSETTS SENATORSHIP

Some Interesting Gossip about the Gladiators

[illegible]

The [illegible] Charles [illegible] Adams, Mr Adams [illegible] years of age, sixty seven [illegible] well preserved [illegible] silver hair [illegible] for the Vice [illegible] years ago with Van Buren [illegible] for the Presidency [illegible] Grant. Adams is more talked about than any other candidate, because among other things it is more respectable to support Mr [illegible] Rum, Romanism and [illegible] in consequence [illegible] support Mr Adams without meaning [illegible] Dawes. Mr Adams no [illegible] a good Senator. He is an Adams [illegible] resolute, a man of high honor who has served the country in many station with dignity and fidelity. But Mr Adams represents only disaffection. The men who support him are not real Republicans. He is not known to be a Republican. One of his sons, Charles, a young man of unusual force and independence, is a Republican and a hereditary candidate for the Presidency on that side. Another son, John Quincy, or Jennie Q. as people irreverently call him, has been Democratic candidate for Governor and is a hereditary candidate for the Presidency upon the Democratic side, or in fact upon any side but Republicanism and temperance. So that, like the old Scotch lord in the rebellion who had one son in the loyal army and the other in the rebel lines, no matter who won the property was safe. No matter who wins there is an Adams ready to hold office for the honor of the family. If the Republicans are hopelessly divided Mr Adams may be nominated by an alliance with the Democrats. This would be a natural alliance. But it seems only possible. The election of Adams would be the defeat of Dawes, who has mature party claims, the defeat of the Administration, who would accept Dawes, but greater than all the defeat of Butler, who sees in Adams a type of every element that opposes him.—Boston Cor. N. Y. Herald.

A few days ago some members of the Massachusetts Legislature waited upon Mr Adams Jr. and asked him how he thought they had better approach his father on the subject. They wished to tender him the nomination. Young Mr Adams advised them not to do it at all, or if they wished him to fill a necessary gap, to call him to it by right of eminent [illegible] and await his answer.—N. Y. [illegible] March 22.

[illegible]

It seems to be pretty well understood now that Banks is the coming man. The Boston Herald came out squarely for him this morning and many papers throughout the State, particularly in Middlesex county, have already done so. It has become evident that neither Hoar nor Dawes can be elected, and of course Curtis is out of the question, so it will have to come to a compromise, and everything seems to point in the direction of Banks.—Boston Dispatch March 26.

The man who will be brought forward and carried in by default is generally conceded to be General N. P. Banks, who is now a member of the State Senate. Next to him in chances is Speaker Sanford of the House.—Cor. N. Y. Herald.

The [illegible] correspondent says: The Democrats stick closely together and hold the entire party with one exception, but their secret desire is said to be for Banks, though this also is strongly denied. Banks himself still votes for Whittier.

The Herald correspondent says: The Democrats have nominated B. R. Curtis, but they will support General Banks or Charles Francis Adams. General Banks is, as I have said, a member of the Senate—a Liberal Republican elected by Republican votes. He has upon clearly independent position—bound to no party, and elected simply because he is N. P. Banks, and everybody in Waltham likes him. He is a contingent candidate for the Senate—that is to say, his chances for election some what resemble the chances Micawber at one time enjoyed of embarking in the coal trade on the Medway.

[illegible]

Dawes [illegible] and Adams are from the eastern part of the State, and the Senatorship has been [illegible] for a couple of generations. [illegible] Hoar or Adams or any other eastern man, and when the next convention assembles to nominate a Governor the argument will be made that the west is entitled to some honor [illegible] the public men in the west will move [illegible] Boston. Now General Butler [illegible] candidate for Governor. [illegible] Dawes to the Senate and the west will be satisfied without a Governor. Since Butler does not crave the Senatorship he will put it as far away from his home as possible. Dawes represents the average political character of Massachusetts. He is no better and no worse than the average. He has been [illegible] as the phrase goes, many years. [illegible] Administration to please Sam Bowles, but to keep in line with his party. [illegible] Credit Mobilier business—not deep but compromised.—Boston Cor. N. Y. Herald.

[illegible] brought Mr Dawes another bad defeat. All he has gained in the effort to concentrate the scattering votes of yesterday is nine, twenty being the least claimed for him in advance. He not gain upon Judge Hoar is just three votes. This is a second severe disappointment to his friends. They were confident last night they are saying to-day. [illegible] [illegible] by Butler in the [illegible]. The Hoar men stand firm and are not frightened. [illegible]—Boston Cor. N. Y. Tribune March 26.

[illegible]

[untitled continuation]

Dawes [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Hon. [illegible] [illegible] for Mr Dawes [illegible] the Republicans of Massachusetts [illegible] take no advice [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

This [illegible] the gathering [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] The meeting broke up without leaving a doubt [illegible] to widen the breach between the two factions [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

OREGON

Salem now wants a market house.

The Tidings does not appear to be highly [illegible] over some portions of the Democratic ticket.

Ground has been broken and labor commenced on the Blue Mountain University [to be] erected at La Grande.

The hills around Pendleton are now covered with green grass from one to six inches high. Stock of all kinds is rapidly improving.

We learn that Mr Henry Warren, of Oregon City, has a slight attack of varioloid. [illegible] hope [illegible] early recovery.

Pendleton's public square has been put to [illegible] [illegible] paper don't understand it [illegible] it's all right.

The tide of travel to the mines has commenced. Men on horseback [illegible] in the coach and all other manner of conveyance [illegible] La Grande.

The road through the Blue Mountains is improving daily and is now quite passable. The road from La Grande to Baker City [illegible] in fine condition.

The bridge across the Umatilla opposite Pendleton is unsafe and unless a new bridge is built the county paper will be called upon to [illegible] accident.

[illegible] Union. His horse became frightened at [illegible] and in attempting to [illegible] Unfortunately he fell on Mr Adams [illegible] injuring the knee very severely.

At the election for School Director and Clerk in Salem last Monday, R. H. Dearborn was re-elected Director without opposition and Lafayette Williams was elected Clerk over M. M. Mall[illegible] [illegible]

Some of the leading Grangers, residents principally at La Grande, made efforts a few days since to purchase from W. J. Snodgrass his flouring mill and store at Oro Dell, to be run as an entire Granger establishment.

Hardin Dawson, Wm. Poe and J. H. Burn, [illegible] all hailing from Linn, have been placed at [illegible] at Salem. Dawson is in for two years for rape, Poe three years for incest and [illegible] one year for embezzlement.

Salem came near having another fire last Sunday. Some hoodlums piled up a lot of tinder in the woodshed of the Central School House and applied a match to it. Salem is certainly raising a good crop of incendiarists.

The Walla Walla Statesman, a Democratic paper, says: The Umatilla independent county convention, to send delegates to the State convention, meets at Pendleton this afternoon. Every precinct in the county will be represented and from what we learn will be composed of many of the most influential citizens of that county.

Time Mason, against whom an indictment is now pending in the District Court at Walla Walla on the charge of horse stealing, was arrested at La Grande, Oregon, a week or two since and kept in custody until Sheriff Griffin went after him and took him to Walla Walla. The indictment against Mason was found about two years since, but he managed to avoid arrest up to the time of his capture at La Grande.

From Mr Henry Coleman, who [illegible] from Malheur reservation, the [illegible] learns that everything is quiet [illegible] there has been no trouble with the Indians as reported. Mr C. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] spring thaw came on.

From the Statesman we learn that Mr John Waymire, of Dallas, owner of the Dallas flouring mill, met with a most painful accident last Monday, which it is feared may yet prove fatal. He was alone in the mill and fell from the main shaft at a supposed distance of twelve feet into the pit, lighting on the rocks. He was not discovered until he had managed to crawl up the bank soon after which he became unconscious and was still in that state when our informant heard from him last. The injuries which are visible are very slight, but the indications are that he has received serious internal injuries from which he [illegible] doubtful.

Tillamook—N. B. Humphrey.

Your Committee respectfully represent that under the basis of representation Columbia county is entitled to two delegates, and that only one has been elected from that county. The question is therefore submitted to the Convention for its action. We also find Washington county entitled to five delegates, but it has only elected four. We respectfully recommend that said county be allowed to cast five votes in this Convention.

J. T. BARIN, Chairman.

Some discussion sprang up on a motion to adopt the report of the Committee, arising from some mistakes in the names of delegates.

G. M. Stroud, conductor on the Oregon and California Railroad, was announced as proxy for C. M. Foster of Baker county.

On motion the report was adopted.

On motion of J. B. Congle the present officers were elected a permanent organization.

On motion a committee of five was appointed on order of business.

A Committee on Resolutions, consisting of one from each county, was appointed by the Chair.

W. J. Snodgrass, of Union county, was elected Assistant Secretary.

The President announced the following committees:

[illegible]—A. R. Burbank, of Yamhill; J. [illegible] Benton; C. M. Foster, of Baker; J. F. Cooper, of Douglas, and S. J. McCormick, of Multnomah.

[illegible]—James Chambers, of Benton; J. T. Barin, of Clackamas; J. M. McCall, of Jackson; H. Kelley, of Josephine; [illegible] Shelly, of Linn; W. P. Lord, of Marion; N. B. Case, of Clatsop.

On motion adjourned to 6:30 P. M.

Evening Session.

The Convention was called to order [illegible] John McCraken in the chair.

Mr J. F. Watson presented a telegraphic dispatch appointing him proxy for M. [illegible] Schetter of Coos county.

The Committee on Order of Business submitted the following report:

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1st, adoption of platform; 2d, nomination of Representative in Congress; 3d, nomination of Governor; 4th, nomination of Secretary of State; 5th, nomination of State Treasurer; 6th, nomination of State Printer; 7th, nomination of Superintendent of Public Instruction; 8th, nomination of Judge of Second Judicial District; 9th, nomination of Judge of Fourth Judicial District; 10th, nomination of Prosecuting Attorney of [illegible] Judicial District; 11th, nomination of Prosecuting Attorney of Second Judicial District; 12th, nomination of Prosecuting Attorney [illegible] Judicial District; [illegible] nomination [illegible] Prosecuting Attorney of Fourth Judicial District; 14th, nomination of Prosecuting Attorney of Fifth Judicial District; 15th, appointing State Central Committee.

On motion the [illegible] was adopted.

The Committee on Resolutions submitted the following:

Platform Adopted.

[illegible]

1. The Republican party of the State of Oregon, in Convention assembled, declare that the [illegible] is to secure equal and exact justice to all citizens [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] interpreted and foreshadowed by the Declaration of Independence as the true American idea, that this idea can only be realized by the election of honest and capable men to public office [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] the choice of the people [illegible] their candidates for office.

[illegible] reform and [illegible] in all offices [illegible] administration. That to secure this is the duty of every citizen, that to this end every good man should feel bound to participate in politics and to make an [illegible] That we believe there are as good men in the Republican party [illegible] and [illegible] such are entitled to receive the support of the people.

That we sympathize with every movement to [illegible] for agriculture and labor their due influence [illegible] and the Republican party will be their ally in every [illegible] to attain that end.

That the interests of this State demand in its commercial relations with the other States of the Union, both present and prospective, and will warrant a liberal expenditure on the part of our National Government in the improvement of our harbors and of our river channels, and it is the true policy of the people that they should be so represented in Congress as shall the most effectually secure this result.

8. That [illegible] the [illegible] of the public lands of the United States as well as the settlement of our [illegible] development of [illegible] resources, commends liberal grants of the public land [illegible] in the construction of railroads and other public works, with such limitations and restrictions as will secure their ultimate sale to actual settlers.

9. That we are in favor of Congressional aid to the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, for the improvement of the Columbia river at the Dalles and Cascades, to aid the extension of the Oregon Central Railroad from St. Joe through the counties of Polk and Benton to its junction with the Oregon and California Railroad, and the improvement of the Willamette river.

10. That we favor Congressional aid for the construction of a wagon road from some point in Rogue river valley to the nearest practicable point on the coast, and that we favor the immediate construction of a good and serviceable wagon road along the south bank of the Columbia river from the mouth of Sandy to the Dalles.

11. That we are opposed to the purchase or lease by this State of the canal and locks at the falls of the Willamette river.

12. That we demand the repeal of the litigant law, Portland Police bill, the unconstitutional acts increasing the emoluments and salaries of State and Judicial officers, the act increasing the fees of clerks and sheriffs, and the modification of the school laws so as to relieve the people of the school book monopoly.

13. That we are in favor of the speedy payment in full of all just claims of citizens and volunteers for supplies furnished and services rendered in the suppression of Indian hostilities in Southern Oregon in the years 1855 and 1856.

14. That we are in favor of such legislation to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors as will restrain the abuse growing out of its indiscriminate [illegible] and operate as a [illegible] check upon the growing evils of intemperance.

15. That we are in favor of opening [illegible] valleys to settlement.

JAMES CHAMBERS,
Chairman Committee.

REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS.

The nomination for Representative in Congress being next in order, Mr Richard Williams was nominated by acclamation.

That gentleman was called forward. He responded and thanked the Convention for the honor conferred and stated that he would stand on the platform.

G. M. Stroud and J. B. Lee were appointed tellers.

Mr Burbank moved that the Convention vote by ballot and require a majority of the Convention to elect. Carried.

FOR GOVERNOR.

Judge J. C. Tolman of Jackson county was nominated by acclamation and the delegation from Jackson county was instructed to inform Judge Tolman of his nomination by telegraph.

SECRETARY OF STATE.

C. M. Foster, of Baker county, was nominated Secretary of State by acclamation. He came forward and thanked the Convention.

STATE TREASURER.

The following were nominated for State Treasurer: Ralph Jacobs, of Clackamas county; J. G. Wright, of Marion; J. H. Moores, of Marion; Z. F. Moody, of Wasco; D. G. Clark, of Benton.

First ballot—R. Jacobs [illegible]; J. G. Wright, [illegible]8; J. H. Moores 25; Z. F. Moody, [illegible]; D. G. Clark, 3; Blank, 1.

Third ballot—R. Jacobs 1; J. G. Wright 36; J. H. Moores 20; Z. F. Moody 1; D. G. Clark 69; blank 6.

On second ballot Jacobs withdrew and on the third ballot Moody withdrew. D. G. Clark was declared nominated.

STATE PRINTER.

J. M. Waite of Marion, W. B. Carter of Benton, A. G. Walling of Multnomah and William Morgan of Linn were named.

First ballot—Waite, 80; Carter 10; Walling 18; Morgan 12.

Mr Waite came forward and made a thrilling speech.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

L. L. Rowland of Wasco county, A. J. Anderson of Washington county, and L. J. Powell of Marion county were named.

First ballot—Rowland, 82; Anderson, 24; Powell 19.

On motion the nominations of L. L. Rowland and D. G. Clark were declared unanimous.

The Convention adjourned until the districts could choose candidates for Judges and Attorneys of the different districts, and subject to the call of the Chair.

Mr Caples, of Portland, was then called upon to make a speech. He replied that he thought that the Convention would rather complete their labors than to listen to speeches, but he must say that they had done well, and proposed three cheers.

The Convention reassembled and ratified the following:

District Nominations.

The First Judicial District did not make any nominations.

Second District—For Judge, John Kelsay, of Benton; for District Attorney, F. A. Chenoweth, of Benton; for Joint Senator, A. M. Witham, of Benton.

Third District—For District Attorney, N. B. Humphrey, of Linn.

Joint Senator of Tillamook, Clatsop and Columbia counties—[illegible] Smith.

Joint Representative of Clatsop and Columbia—W. K. Depu[illegible]

ADDITIONAL RESOLUTIONS.

The delegates of the Second Judicial District passed a resolution instructing J. F. Watson, State Senator from Douglas county, not to vote for the purchase of the Locks at Oregon City.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the construction by the [illegible] Government of a breakwater at Port Orford in Curry county.

J. F. WATSON.

Having been called for, that gentleman appeared and said he would not bore them with a long speech. We have nominated a ticket, and now we should go home and elect it.

And then at 10 [illegible] P. M. the Convention adjourned.

The State Central Committee was in session in room No. 1 of the Chemeketa Hotel, after the adjournment of the Convention.

THE WORK OF THE RING CONVENTION

The Holladay ring convention has been held, and the Holladay ring candidates are in the field In the main, the convention seems to have acted upon the presumption that the better a ring man is known, the less likely he is to receive the support of the people We cannot but commend their judgment on that point In pursuance of this policy, the first place on the State ticket, and that which is most important to the people at large is filled by an obscure old gentleman of Jackson county by name J C Tolman—sometimes called "Judge Tolman" a title accorded to him for some reason which it is difficult to divine, unless it is intended as a delicate piece of irony As few persons outside of Jackson county have ever heard of J. C. Tolman, or ever will hear of him again after the election, we take this occasion to say that he has been an active politician, in a small way, for a long time, and would make a reasonably good County Commissioner, so far as education and intelligence are concerned, but is no more fit for Governor than Joe Meek is fit for Minister to the Court of St James. Grover's twenty-three years' "struggle" against the litigant law is a mere bagatelle compared to the struggle Tolman would have if elected to write an intelligible message to the Legislature Exit Grover, enter Tolman! No, thank you, excuse us

For Congressman, Richard Williams, of Portland He is pretty well known in the State as a lawyer, and will make a respectable campaign Dick is a man of strong friendships and weak convictions, and is, of course, popular. We are truly sorry he has gone over to the embraces of the ring, for we like him personally, and should rather not see him in a place where the interests of the State demand that he be beaten However, he has chosen his allies, and he ought to be, and will be beaten, along with the rest

Charles M Foster, the nominee for Secretary of State, is a resident of Baker county, and a clever gentleman. He is as eligible a candidate as Chadwick, and will pair off with him on election day—that is, they, too, will form a pair of sorrowful monuments to the ungratefulness of republics and the uncertainty of politics

D G Clark, of Corvallis, is the nominee for State Treasurer The selection is not a bad one, so far as we know The election of either Clark or A H Brown, the Democratic candidate, aside from their connections with rings, which is not a desirable connection for a Treasurer, would be no disgrace to the State. But Mr. Clark will find the ring too much for him to carry.

At last Hon. W. Carey Johnson has got a nomination for Judge of the Fourth Judicial District We give him joy on the occasion for which he has so long prayed Carey is not a great lawyer We presume no friend of his will claim that he is. We question, in fact, whether he is much [illegible] of a man in respect of legal learning and ability, than the present incumbent but we should expect him to make a better Judge, all things considered But what is the use of speculating on the subject of his qualifications for an office which he will never be called upon to fill Let us indulge the pleasant fancy that he would prove a very Marshall, since we can do so without the slightest danger of having our fancies put to the test of reality The convention could have selected a worse man—or a better—for Judge, but it could hardly have found a weaker candidate

As to the platform adopted, it says nothing bad, some things that are good, and much that is mere demagoguery Some of its resolutions are clearly intended to be read in different ways by different persons, and some of them, as for instance, those about public economy, the purity of the ballot box, and that on the subject of Federal officers meddling with State politics, though right in themselves, are nothing more nor less than the broadest kind of burlesques on the recent practices of the ring that manages the party Not Nast himself, nor Hogarth, could have given better expression to the ludicrous features of the manipulations of tricky politicians to gull the people, than this convention gave in the passage of these resolutions

There are other points which demand attention and will receive it in due time

THE BULLETIN RENEWS THE ATTACK AND THE EDITOR AGAIN SHOWS HIS IGNORANCE

The ring organ's malice toward Judge Deady has broke out afresh With just enough of the sense of decency left to perceive the necessity of offering some excuse for reopening its libellous attacks upon him, it resorts to the device usual with its managers when in an emergency it makes up a falsehood out of whole cloth in the shape of a declaration that the OREGONIAN has plunged into the matter again This is simply a falsehood The OREGONIAN, as its readers know has not referred to the Judge directly or indirectly for a long period. We only mention this lying excuse to show to what base means the Bulletin is in the habit of descending to bolster up or to excuse its slanders of honorable men, and not as having any other relation to the attack on Judge Deady

The charge which is now brought by the ring organ has nothing in it when separated from the malicious comments of the "associated editorship" It is that the Judge has received pay for examining and certifying the sufficiency of the official bonds of federal officers Whether this is true or false we have no personal knowledge but suppose he has done so what of it?" If the "associated editorship" is not too ignorant to know what was required of himself as Collector of Customs he knows there is no law requiring the Judge to perform this service, nor is there any law requiring such officers to have their bonds approved by him Some of the heads of Departments at Washington, for the purpose of informing themselves as to the sufficiency of the securities on official bonds which they are required by law to approve or disapprove, make a rule of refusing to approve any bond until the sufficiency has been certified to by either the District Judge or U S District Attorney of the District for which the appointment is made but that is their own matter, and the Judge is not required by law to take any notice of them Because the Judge and District Attorney are supposed to be suitable persons to make such examination and inform the officer at Washington in the premises he designates them just as a person applied to for a certificate of the title of a messuage of land might designate some competent lawyer whose opinion should be presented by the applicant before he would make any certificate on the subject If the applicant did not want the certificate bad enough to pay the designated lawyer for his opinion he could let it alone but the lawyer would not be expected to give his services free This is exactly a parallel case with these approvals of official bonds by the U S Judges What they do they do as individuals, not as Judges They doubtless are designated to do the work because of their position and standing, but it is not a judicial nor an official act It is of just the same nature as taking the acknowledgment of a deed, which the Judges are not required to do, but which they are permitted by State laws to do and for which their right to be paid has never been so much as questioned So it makes no difference whether Judge Deady has received pay for this unofficial work or not He has the right to say whether he will do the work for nothing, or for compensation, or whether he will do it at all

But the malice of the "associated editorship," whose connection with the election bribery last fall makes him a bitter personal enemy to every man whose duties required him to have anything to do with the prosecution and conviction of the repeaters, has magnified this matter into the basis of a charge of gross corruption and malfeasance in office Any person who gives the slightest attention to the facts can see in these facts how utterly malicious and base are the charges made by the ring organ against Judge Deady Scott's malignity is only excelled by his ignorance.

A LAMENTABLE FALL

Few Californians are more widely known on the Pacific coast than R H Magill, Manager of the Phœnix Insurance Company, of Hartford For many years he has held a position of high honor and trust and enjoyed a reputation of singular excellence The San Francisco Chronicle of the 4th, briefly announces his fall as follows

Until within a few days no man in San Francisco connected with the insurance business was supposed to occupy a sounder or safer position than Robert H Magill Manager of the Phœnix Insurance Company of Hartford and of several other Eastern and foreign companies He has for years enjoyed the very highest reputation as an energetic and prudent business man of first class ability and strict integrity. Though for some time past it has been a subject of remark among a few of his more intimate acquaintances that he was living on a scale far beyond his apparent means it was not until the beginning of the week that it became known outside of insurance circles that he had been making use of the funds of the Phœnix Company for a considerable period, and was now in the position of a defaulter for a large amount Mr Magill has recently built a splendid residence at Alameda, which is richly furnished and surrounded by fine grounds, with fish ponds fountains, etc This, together with all his other property, he has turned over to the office, and his friends state that the proceeds will go far toward making good the deficiency in his accounts with the company Meanwhile Mr Magill has been removed from his position as Manager, and his brother, Arthur E Magill, appointed as his successor.

Nevada papers have commenced prospecting for Senator Sargent's successor The Virginia Enterprise owned by Wm Sharon of mining stocks fame, finds an eligible candidate just at his elbow It says he will present a strong claim to the seat before the next Legislature The Virginia Chronicle denies a rumor to the effect that Charles E DeLong, ex Minister to Japan has withdrawn from the contest The Chronicle says

Mr DeLong will, on his return from Washington open a law office in this city and will in due time stump the State in the interest of the Republican party, and proposes at the same time to make a winning fight for the position of United States Senator

The Senatorial contest in Massachusetts remains in statu quo It is more than ever apparent that if a Senator be elected this year, it will be brought about only by a coalition of the Butler or the anti Butler faction with the Democracy In another place will be found a racy review of the contestants The Boston Journal alluding to the demand on Mr Dawes to give assurance of his anti Butler proclivities, says that gentleman's reply is that "his seven years fight in Congress, single handed and his position in two memorable campaigns is a record which everybody knows

In the Senate April 2d Mr Cragin presented a memorial by survivors of the Polaris expedition reciting their physical and pecuniary suffering—the result of their hardships and exposure—and asking relief Mr Sherman presented the petition of Mercy Hall widow of Captain Hall, commander of the Polaris praying for a pension The latter petition was endorsed by General Sherman Professor Henry and other prominent gentlemen. The petitions were referred

A Massachusetts exchange informs us that Mr Dawes, as Chairman of the Massachusetts delegation, has issued invitations to a number of gentlemen in the House and Senate to deliver addresses on the life and character of Charles Sumner at an early day The date is not fixed because it is customary for the successor of a Senator deceased to announce the death of his predecessor The is every prospect that the eulogists will have ample time for preparation

The Democratic State Convention did all in its power to insure the success of the Independent movement by nominating a weak ticket and now Holladay's Convention come in with its effort in the same direction According to present appearances there will not be a candidate elected on either of the party tickets

The London Times is enthusiastic in its praise of Pullman Palace Cars of which it says Everything fits closely and works smoothly The eye falls everywhere upon the mechanical contrivances of that ingenuity which we are accustomed to recognize and describe as American

If ever there was a case of "sucking the dry hind teat" in politics that case is Carey Johnson's acceptance of the ring nomination for Judge of this District We could not have believed Carey would be such a calf

From a list published by the San Francisco Call it appears that the tax payers of that city expend annually $765,180 in salaries for 498 city officials

THURSDAY MORNING APRIL 9 1874

CITY.

To BE DISCHARGED.—There are few persons in the city who are not familiar with the case of James R Farish. This gentleman was arrested last summer charged with forgery and committed to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury. Meantime his sanity became a matter of grave doubt and he was examined before the County Judge and pronounced a fit subject for the asylum whither he was removed. When the cause came up for trial in the Circuit Court—the Grand Jury having returned a true bill—Mr Farish was discharged. The defense rested solely on grounds of lunacy and succeeded so well in establishing the fact to the satisfaction of the court and jury that he was acquitted on that plea. After acquittal Mr Farish was remanded to the asylum at which institution he has since been confined. We learn that his present mental condition has greatly improved, so much so as to warrant his release. Soon after his trial his wife sailed for San Francisco, where she is at present residing. It is said that Mr Farish will take his departure on the [illegible] and will rejoin his family and relatives in California.

STEAMER ONWARD.—This steamer, which has been lying for many weeks in the Tualatin river, just above the rapids, was brought safely down into the Wallamet on Tuesday. She is now lying in the basin above Oregon City. Workmen are already engaged in overhauling the craft. Repairs are being made to the machinery and hull and the boat will receive a new coat of paint. In a few days the Onward will be brought down through the locks to this city.

FITTED UP.—Mr Richmond, general repairer for the W U T Co, returned last evening from Salem. He went up several days ago for the purpose of removing the telegraph office and making such alterations as the change would render necessary. The office has been moved from the Chemeketa Hotel, and a room fitted up elsewhere in a neat and tasty manner.

DISAPPEARED.—We understand that two boys—sons of well known families of this city—disappeared on Tuesday and up to present writing have not been found. These boys are about 16 years of age. It is strongly surmised that these truants have left their homes for the purpose of embarking on one of the foreign bound vessels.

LOSS SUSTAINED.—The loss sustained by the fire of Tuesday night was not as heavy as was at first supposed. Mr Cook, who owns the building, has sustained damage to the extent of about $100. The building was not insured. Mr Walker, proprietor of the Soda Works, was damaged in the vicinity of $150. He was fully insured.

FOR THE NORTH.—The steamer California, which sailed from this port yesterday evening, carried away the following passengers: C Mayer, B Morder, C M Alexander, R B Collins, C King, John Tahn, G W Cann, P Feily, James F Miller, C Morrill, W Sher[illegible], Mr Tuck, and 25 in the steerage.

IN PORT.—At the latest advices from Hongkong, it is learned that on the 27th of February the British bark Forward, Capt White, and the bark Garibaldi, Capt Nove, were both lying at that port, and would probably soon sail for this port.

ST DAVID'S CHURCH.—Hereafter, until further notice, there will be no morning service at St. David's P. E. Church, East Portland; Sunday School at 10 A. M. and evening service at 7 P M will be continued as usual.

LICENSE GRANTED.—In the County Court yesterday a license was issued to Q Voss of the Forest House, to sell spirituous liquors in quantities less than a quart for the period of one year.

ELECTED.—At the Annual School Meeting, held last Monday evening at East Portland—School District No 21—the following officers were chosen: Trustee, S S Stafford; Clerk, A M Elam.

HAULED OFF.—A few days ago the steamers Fannie Patton and Albany were hauled off the line on the Upper Wallamet and are now lying in the Basin.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The crusaders were out yesterday in full force. Nothing of unusual importance occurred during the day.

On and after to-day the County Treasurer will be prepared to liquidate all outstanding county indebtedness.

Many are anxious to know why work has not been commenced yet on the proposed cistern at the intersection of First and Stark streets.

The billiard match between Longstreet and Pray, to come off on the 18th inst. The number of points to be played is not decided upon yet.

Mrs. Theo Wygant has been elected President of the Ladies Relief Society to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mrs S M Smith.

False alarm of fire shortly after noon yesterday. Rush, and a big crowd assembled where the fire was supposed to be—near the corner of Second and Washington streets.

Frank Faber, the famous coffee man, has a bogus coin (Silver)—we mean he has taken unto himself a wife and her name was Silver. Frank is happy and we hope his better half will find no grounds for complaint.

PERSONAL.

Some days ago Mr Paul Richter met with an accident by falling down stairs, which has confined him to his room. We learn he is improving.

Mr J D Scharf of J O N[illegible] & Co [illegible] has returned from the Golden City with a new stock. We shall be able to [illegible] doing to-morrow.

Mr Charles Hopkins, formerly [illegible] business on Front street, and [illegible] burnt out by the first big fire December [illegible] is in the city. He is now a [illegible] Walla Walla.

Mr A J Marshall, D D G P, [illegible] yesterday from Oregon City, whither he went on important business appertaining to the [illegible]. To-day Mr Marshall will visit [illegible] and to-morrow Albany on business connected with the Encampment branch of the order.

Dr C M Sawtelle, appointed [illegible] some time ago as physician at the Neah Bay Indian Reservation, returned here last Saturday. He came on a brief visit and will soon return to the Reservation. He reports everything peaceable [illegible] among the Indians.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Last evening the Scandinavian Society of Portland gave their first anniversary ball at the Good Templar Hall. Success crowned the affair as was abundantly evidenced by the full attendance. With a pleasant hall, excellent music, and good management, parties [illegible] found no grounds for complaint and [illegible] managed to pass the evening in a very agreeable manner. Until a late hour the merry dance went on. Our Scandinavian citizens evidently know how to get up successful social affairs, and just how to conduct them. The hall was very handsomely and appropriately decorated in honor of the event.

RIVER AND COAST IMPROVEMENTS.

On Tuesday the dredger was ordered to proceed down to the Hog's Back and commence operations at that point before the annual freshet of June shall [illegible] and thus materially interfere with effective operations. It is proposed to [illegible] work forward with all dispatch.

Plans and specifications for the construction of the new lighthouse at Point Adams, which were forwarded to Washington months ago, have all met with the approval of the Department. Sealed proposals have been advertised for and the contract will be let within the next thirty days.

Whenever an appropriation is made, and the stage of water along the Upper Wallamet will permit work, the improvement of the channel will be resumed without delay. The snag puller which has been [illegible] below the city all winter is in readiness for service. Work will probably be [illegible] the first of June, if not prior to that time.

To-morrow Gen Michler will start for the Upper Columbia, [illegible] of the improvements at Umatilla Rapids, John Day Rapids and Devil's Bend. That gentleman has no [illegible] the work. The object of the visit is to inspect the character of the work performed—also to examine several other points where the channel requires improving.

A few days since Gen Michler returned from a tour in Yamhill county, whither he went last week on business pertaining to the duties of his office. Prominent among the objects of his visit was to personally examine the channel of the Yamhill river for the distance that stream is navigable. Gen Michler will make recommendations for the removal of various impediments and the general improvement of the channel as soon as appropriation is made by Congress.

Pilots and river men are especially requested to note this fact. The cut made last season to deepen the channel through Postoffice Bar is completed, and buoys are placed along at intervals to indicate the windings of the same. These buoys have been purposely placed back from the edge of the cut about twenty feet on each side. The advantage of this arrangement is that when large deep draught vessels are being towed up or down the river the tugs or steamers as the case may be can pass with perfect safety along just inside the line of buoys while the tow will remain directly in the channel. By observing this precaution there need be no difficulty about running vessels aground at that point.

Instructions have been received here from the Department at Washington to make a number of surveys the coming season on San Juan Island. The object of such surveys is to select a number of suitable localities for the construction of fortifications, also to locate reservations in various portions of the Island for military purposes. These precautions are being observed on the part of the Government so that in the event of a war with any foreign power the Island would become a harbor of refuge for vessels which could be brought under the protection afforded by the fortifications. Preparations are being made to carry out the instructions of the Government and a surveying party will be in the field within a few weeks from date.

Some months before Major Robert was transferred East he made a partial survey of what is known as Percey's Slough, near the mouth of the Wallamet river, with a view to the construction of a dam across the stream. A point was selected where the dam was to be built, and estimates, plans, draughts etc were being prepared which were to be forwarded to Washington for approval. Gen Michler soon after Major Robert went East made a personal examination of the slough and selected a point higher up where the dam was to be constructed. The advantages gained by the former gentleman's selection are that the slough is much narrower and runs between high perpendicular banks. Plans, draughts, estimates etc of the projected improvement were prepared and forwarded to the Department. Last Tuesday a letter was received from Washington, approving the estimates etc and instructing that operations commence whenever the stage of water will permit. For a number of years past the sand at the mouth of the Wallamet has constantly augmented and required every season the services of the dredger. A large proportion of the sand and gravel which is deposited every season at the mouth of the Wallamet it is estimated comes from Percey's Slough. This slough branches off from the Columbia some distance above the confluence of the two streams, and running northward debouches into the Wallamet a short distance above its mouth. At high stages an immense volume of water from the Columbia pours through the slough and empties into the Wallamet. Earth, sand and gravel are borne along by the force of the stream until meeting the adverse current of the Columbia are retarded and thus deposited in large quantities where the two rivers unite. It has been wisely thought that if the slough was dammed and the water effectually prevented from passing through it would be of great advantage to navigation. For this express purpose the recommendation was made, plans submitted etc. The plan is to drive large piles across the slough at intervals of every few yards. Along the top of these piles will be placed heavy cross timbers securely attached. Powerful braces will also be attached near the foot of the piling, so as to render it sufficiently strong to resist the force of the current. This being done an immense [illegible] of willow cuttings will be thrown in the stream just above the piles. Water willows are to be used which will speedily take root along the bottom of the stream. These willows, together with other materials such as logs, etc. will soon collect the sand as it passes down, and in a few years form a permanent and insuperable obstacle to the water. This plan is certainly an excellent one. At the point where the dam will cross the slough is by actual measurement 867 feet wide. It is estimated that the work can be done for about $5,000 currency.

AMUSEMENTS.

Madame Stevenson, the talented musician who is so well known to this public, will be the recipient of a complimentary benefit this evening. Of the merits of the programme nothing need be said. Elsewhere it is published in full, and the selections named—vocal and instrumental—and the persons who are to appear in the course of the evening to represent the respective roles are a sufficient guarantee that the entertainment will be interesting, refined and in all respects worthy of public patronage. We desire to mention in this connection that in addition to the fact that the benefit is complimentary to the talents of the recipient it is also a matter of charity. Madame Stevenson's circumstances are at present such that charity exercised in her behalf is not idly or undeservedly bestowed. Publicity is given to this unpleasant state of facts only that our citizens may know just how she is situated. The recipient is in all particulars worthy of the benefit and it is equally certain that she actually needs assistance. The entertainment this evening will be under the management and direction of Mr Geo [illegible] DeFrans. Already a large number of tickets have been sold and a crowded house may be anticipated.

THE PRAYING CRUSADE

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Some days since you very moderately expressed the opinion that no good would come of this crusade of the women against the liquor sellers. The time has come in the judgment of many when the opinion should be expressed with greater emphasis. Many people who believe in both temperance and prayer have never approved of the mode of suppressing the evils of intemperance which no man with his eyes open can consider small. They believe however that this [illegible] unlawful way of doing it, that it is a dishonoring of the religion of [illegible] Christ, that it is doing that very thing which He likened to throwing that which is holy to the dogs and casting pearls before swine, that it is stirring up the worst passions of men and if persisted in will lead to the worst consequences. [illegible] the term used to describe this business, and if it goes on much longer this will be something more than a figure of speech. We are not disposed to question the good intentions of these women but we do question their wisdom and the wisdom and manliness of their abettors and advisers. It is not possible that the good sense of the community will allow this thing to go on accumulating mischief and disorder. Whatever may be said of the indiscretion and rudeness of some of these saloon keepers a sentiment of sympathy for them is fast growing. This is considered an unlawful invasion of their premises and an unwarrantable interference with their business. It is claimed with good reason that any other business that puts temptation in men's way may as well be assailed in this manner as theirs. Many temperate and Christian people are scandalized by this use of prayer which is not to seek God but by annoyance [illegible] and public odium to drive men to succumb and then claim an answer to prayer. This is perfectly impious and shocking to every right minded Christian. I think you are mistaken in supposing that public opinion is in favor of this movement and against the sentiment of disapprobation you express. An opinion has been manufactured largely by sensational writers in the newspapers and great excitement has doubtless been gotten up. With most reformers and fanatics this is considered a great achievement without any regard to the fruit and consequence. But the reaction in this matter is already beginning in the States as you have doubtless seen and as the following extract from an Eastern paper shows.

WHY THE PRAYING WOMEN OF HILLSBORO WERE ENJOINED.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial has interviewed Judge Safford of Hillsboro, Ohio, who granted an injunction against the praying women of that town upon the application of W H Dunn the druggist. Judge Safford did not hesitate to declare that he granted the injunction because the singing and praying were a public nuisance. According to Judge Safford, Dr Dunn has one of the largest and most costly drug stores in the State. He has never sold liquors to be drunk upon the premises or to minors and drunkards, and his sales are in quantities larger or smaller such as may be incidental to his general business. The Judge stated that there was no objection to singing when they were conducted so as not to disturb private rights or public tranquility, and added:

When such worship is made the pretext for breaking a man's lawful trade, of interfering with the quiet and peaceful enjoyment of his own property, of bringing him into public ridicule and disgrace, of defaming his calling and character, and this without intermission for six consecutive weeks in the storms and cold of winter, creating heartburnings among neighbors, defamation of private character and an unsettled state of society—that, sir, is a nuisance.

The Judge might have added that the man who gets $50 a day for urging women to do this kind of business is a greater nuisance still.—Chicago Tribune.

We learn, in addition to this, that no such permanent results as were at first claimed in this movement have been secured. Saloon keepers and liquor dealers who at first surrendered through a spirit of gallantry, dissatisfaction with their business, temporary excitement or from fear of the lash of public sentiment have in many cases returned to their business with larger stocks and better prospects of making money. This is just what many people expected from the first. The wisest thing these women can do, in the judgment of many friends of temperance and religion, is to quit this business and to go home to their families and promote temperance by living quiet, godly and blameless lives. St Paul had the obligation to a life of temperance in both men and women much on his mind and he gives much good advice to the latter specially. If they will observe the following directions they will do more to promote temperance than all the crusades against rum sellers that all the strong minded women in the United States can carry on. "But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine: That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience. The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things; That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, to be discreet, chaste, KEEPERS AT HOME, good, obedient to their own husbands, THAT THE WORD OF GOD BE NOT BLASPHEMED."

Truly yours,
TEMPERANCE.

THE ALLIES OF THE WHISKY BUSINESS

THE VIEW OF AN OLD [illegible] ON WHISKY AND WOMEN—IN TWO [illegible] CHAPTERS

CONFEDERATE CROSS ROADS,
(Not 1,000 miles from Portland)
April 6 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Man born of woman (and most men are) is of few days and them few are full of trouble, that it is a [illegible] worth being born at all. In the morning we go forth rejoicing in our strength and before night we are cut down with [illegible] and shipwrecked emotion. I have more than once waded in woe knee deep while very often the waters of affliction rolled up to my venerable chin. [illegible] I regret to say that it is now my turn to sing. I have seen the day that daughters [illegible] graveyards [illegible] Virginia [illegible] nigger [illegible] bacon and corn whisky [illegible]

[illegible] this subject was brought direct [illegible] the distillers and other strong supporters of the church by Brother [illegible] who came up from [illegible] evening and related in great distress how these women had been visiting his place singing hymns, praying and exhorting him to give up his honorable [illegible] established business and pour his whisky into the streets. This was too much and says I, Bascom, don't waste that Licker. Bowing my venerable head I absorbed myself in deep and profound meditation. And this was the conclusion. "Bascom," says I, "this is an attack upon our liberties by the abolitionists, who not satisfied with robbing us of our slaves and concubines are now determined to spill the oil of our gladness upon the sacred soil of our country and the very homes and graves of our fathers and brethren."

But what shall we do, says Bascom. The women will be here again to-morrow. I'll tell you. You hire nigger Jake (who I [illegible] not yet forget that he was once your born slave) and John Guthrie, who was once the owner of niggers [illegible] but now reduced to carrying [illegible]—hire them I say to bring eggs and scatter fire crackers on the women while offering up their [illegible] devotions and generally make it [illegible] filthy for them in that vicinity.

Bascom started. Hold, says I. Hold! A bright thought glares upon my massive intellect, and this it is. Take this [illegible] the sacred [illegible] the following texts of holy writ—read to these fanatical women:

1. [illegible]
2. [illegible]
3. He that lives not wisely [illegible]

And if that does not confound them call in all the [illegible] of the [illegible] law for the protection of your most sacred and inalienable rights.

Bascom then departed and I gave way to the following retrospective view of the troubles of my people in [illegible].

Once we had niggers by the hundred and the men were fat and healthy and the wenches were fair to look upon.

They worked in our houses and fields from the rising of the Sun to the going down of the same.

Were they lazy we cotted them till they were cured thereof. Did they run away the United States Marshal caught them and delivered them into our hands without cost, saying, Lo here is thy nigger—which was cheaper than keeping dogs and just as good.

Solomon was wise, for he had of concubines a sufficiency, but we were wiser than Sol, for he had to feed his children and it cost him shekels of gold and silver and much corn and oil. We had our concubines with as great a [illegible] as Solomon but we sold their children for silver and gold and had great gain thereby.

In this happy state we had bliss, for we were fathers to our servants and to many of them grandfathers also. But the day of tribulation drew nigh. Some people never will be satisfied, and the Puritan Yankees, howling abolitionists and praying Methodists, actuated by demoniacal jealousy of our halcyon enjoyments of God's good providence, commenced a war upon our sacred and constitutional rights. Nor did we stand idle. We invoked the Bible—the Bible I lent to Bascom. We preached sound doctrine, we voted early and often, we hung John Brown and prayed and waited to them to keep quiet, and to live orderly, quiet and Christian lives. But they turned a deaf ear, yea a deaf ear, to all our entreaties and would hear none of them. John Brown's soul escaped from his hanging carcass and taking possession of Greeley, Chase and Lincoln, it went a marching on—and you all know the rest.

Them happy days is fled,
And never will return.

Mournfully and sadly,
DEACON POGRAM.

The stockkeeper who can lay in large and varied Stocks of Goods should be able to offer his patrons excellent opportunities to purchase just what they want at the lowest figures. This is just what JOS KOHN, opposite National Bank, invariably does. His latest importations are so varied and the prices marked down so low that all can be accommodated. Be sure and look through his stock.

THE TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT and the elections are agitating the city just now, and where to procure a suit of clothing that is bound to wear, one that looks well upon a person and one that does not force a man to the bedrock to possess it, is a question. This is easily answered. At that old established house of Beck & Waldman they fill the bill exactly. Only take a look through their stock to be convinced. Boys clothing is a specialty at this house and mothers note the fact.

The Pull Down Practice.

Death laughs when he sees the weak and feeble bled, blistered, salivated, [illegible] or griped with violent purgatives. He knows that under such treatment they cannot long survive. In direct conflict with this pull down practice is the principle upon which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters operate. The effect of this incomparable vegetable restorative is to build up the system and invigorate the constitution. It imparts appetite and assists digestion, enriches and cleanses the blood, regulates and tones the liver and the bowels, and establishes and perpetuates a healthy habit of body. By a happy combination of vegetable extracts—tonic, aperient and anti-bilious—with a pure stimulant these effects are simultaneously produced. There is no prescription of the pharmacopoeia that has the same scope. You may find among its formulas [illegible] for the bowels, stimulants for the stomach, sedatives for the nerves, but no grand combination medicine that like Hostetter's Bitters is at once a tonic, an aperient, a corrective and an alternative.

Veterinary Surgeons all over the country are recommending Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders for the following trouble in horses:—Loss of appetite, roughness of the hair, stoppage of bowels or water, thick water, coughs and colds, swelling of glands, worms, horse ail, thick wind and heaves.

A friend of ours who is chief clerk in the Government Dispensary says that no medicine chest is now complete without Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. We always supposed it was prescribed by law. If it is not it ought to be, for certainly there is nothing in the whole materia medica of so much importance to the soldier and the sailor as Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

LITTLE DUTCH GRETCHEN

BY FANNY HOBART

Little Dutch Gretchen came over the sea
With an aunt in place of her mother
As like—so little Dutch Gretchen told me—
As like as one pea to another

Little Dutch Gretchen fell sick on the way,
A sailing upon the dark water
The captain came down to the cabin each day
And called her his patient Dutch daughter

Little Dutch Gretchen took pretzels and beer
Hoping she soon would be better
And at last, when the end of the journey was near,
Dutch Gretchen sent homeward a letter

I'm [illegible] Dutch Gretchen wrote first on the page
And my aunt is as kind as my mother
But never a prison bird shut in a cage
Longed more to give one for the other

There's a look and a tone and a tenderer way—
A bosom more gentle to lie on—
And mother a love that will never grow gray
And a heart that is blessed to die on

So mother I've said to the captain to-night
To Bremen I'll sail back most gladly
To tell you if changing one's mother is right
It's a trade that will cheat a child sadly

And little Dutch Gretchen went home o'er the sea
And gave back her aunt for her mother
For they're not all the same said Gretchen to me,
Though like as one pea to another

REMINISCENCES OF SUMNER

THE DISEASE FROM WHICH HE SUFFERED—DEATH OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN

[Washington Cor of the Boston Post]

One of the numerous interesting reminiscences of Sumner that have been published here is related by the editor of the evening paper of this city, based upon a conversation with the Senator several months ago, from which the following excerpts are made. He was in unusually good spirits, and on being interrogated relative to his health, replied "I feel almost as well as I ever did." In speaking of the nature of his disease he referred to it as being the result of the injury received fifteen years ago He entered into a circumstantial account of the manner in which it had affected him, and said the pain seemed to originate in the spinal column, frequently extending from that to the back part of the head, and sometimes to the region of the heart In such cases, said he, "the only relief is morphine injections under the skin It works upon me like magic. It is like a commander-in-chief who cries 'Halt' My spine says to pain, 'Stop,' and it stops This injection always produces a similar effect upon me, although frequently it is necessary to repeat the operation at brief intervals" It being suggested that this treatment, if continued for any length of time, deranged the stomach and interfered with digestion, Sumner responded "So I understand, but it never has had any perceptible effect upon my general health As for indigestion, in the course of my life I have never known practically what it is" The conversation turning upon the assassination of Lincoln, he gave an exceedingly interesting detailed account of his experience upon that dreadful night. "I was with Lincoln all night, and in the morning saw him breathe his last. I had been terribly exercised all night in regard to Seward and desired to go to him as soon as possible My first duty, however, was to the dying President I therefore staid by his side all night. When he drew his last breath some one, I think Stanton, called upon the chaplain who was present to offer prayer. I had already taken my hat to go but waited until the prayer was concluded, when I left hastily. On reaching the steps I saw General Halleck had preceeded me Anxious to go to Seward at once, I asked General Halleck if he would take me there in his carriage, which was standing in the street. General Halleck replied that he was going that way and would do so with pleasure He added, I shall have to ask you to wait for me at the Kirkwood House, as I want to see Vice-President Johnson'—who was stopping there—'a moment" "Then" said Sumner "for the first time it flashed upon me like an electric shock that Andrew Johnson was President of the United States So absorbed had been my grief that it had not occurred to me before Near D street, I think it was, a rope cordon, guarded by soldiers, had been stretched across Tenth street, and a large crowd had collected Recognizing General Halleck and myself, a number of voices said 'Senator, how is Mr Lincoln?' 'General, is Mr Lincoln still alive?' I responded in a low tone of voice, but loud enough to be heard by all, 'Gentlemen, Mr Lincoln has just died,' the announcement being received in sorrowful silence Arrived in front of the Kirkwood, General Halleck alighted, and saying, 'I shall be away just a moment,' passed into the hotel Now, General Halleck was a peculiar man, a man of few words, and when, a minute later, he returned, I inquired, 'General, what did you say to Mr. Johnson?' 'I simply said,' replied the General, 'Don't go out of the house without a guard today' This,' said Sumner, 'was the way in which Johnson was informed of the death of Lincoln, and made aware that he was President of the United States.'"

DESPERATE VALUE OF THE ASHANTEE WARRIORS —A correspondent writes from the field —The Ashantees fought like demons They were present in enormous numbers, pouring on our gallant troops by thousands, yelling and screaming hideously. Although our firing told on them immensely, they had to be driven from point to point, and even when pushed out of the successive villages returned to the attack In the thickest parts of the brush they climbed the trees in order to fire more effectually upon our troops. The order of advance from Insarful was as follows The attack was made in the form of a square, through the middle of which ran the main road, and the line extended about 300 yards on either side. The Forty-second regiment, preceded by Lord Gifford and his scouts, formed the front line, with two of Rait's guns in the centre, Gordon's Houssars in a dense corner of jungle It really seemed as if nothing but the failure of their ammunition would drive them out. Now at one point, now at another, along the hill crest they poured down crushing volleys. Life they counted at no price if only a white man could be killed It was the same desperate obstinacy we had seen at Abrakrampa They climbed trees to fire with more deadly effect, but the mass just lay down and shot till shot themselves or short of ammunition. Sir Archibald Alison, brigadier of the white troops, declares he never came under a fiercer fire in India or the Crimea

WANTED, A HIGHER FOREHEAD —The Milwaukee Sentinel tells an amusing story at the expense of one of the Wisconsin State officials It is to the effect that this functionary called upon a photographer to enlist his aid in handing his features down to posterity A sitting was had, and the negative produced The artist pronounced it a triumphant success, but it did not seem to meet the approval of the sitter, who said that he would call again in a few days When he repeated his visit the photographer observed a change in his appearance which he found it impossible at first to account for but while placing his head in the rest and giving it the right poise, he had a revelation—the forehead had expanded upward, and it appeared that a razor had assisted the development

A prominent Democrat of Umatilla county while in Walla Walla the other day offered to wager from $500 to $1,000 that LaDow would not carry that county The opposition to LaDow is increasing and the reports that reach us indicate that it is impossible for him to poll even a respectable vote in his own county.

The Barley Market.

With reference to the present and future condition of the barley and malt interest the New York Brewers Gazette says

We are assured on the best authority that the 1st of April 1874 will find a larger stock of barley on hand than did the 1st of April 1873 We are glad to hear it and as there are yet two good months for malting, it is to be hoped the trade will recover the check it has received from the high prices that have ruled the last five months The brewing business at this time is not in the most prosperous condition, but this is not attributable alone to that blessing in disguise high priced barley The present season will prove a salutary lesson to many

Imports of Barley into the United States from February 14th to March 11th were

The Growing Crops.

From all parts of the State we hear that the most active preparations for large crops are being made, but it is claimed by those who have had opportunities of knowing that with the same yield per acre in our State as last year the aggregate will not be larger this year owing to the fact that the fall rains in 73 continued so late that not so large an acreage was sown Hon A J Dufur, General Agent of the Grangers deems that one tenth less wheat was sown in the State last fall than the previous year, but that one fourth more spring wheat will be sown, and that one third less oats, and a tenth more of barley

In Lane county it is estimated that one fourth more wheat will be sown this spring than last, many farmers who sowed but little fall wheat will put in large fields of spring

In Jackson county it is generally conceded among farmers that the area sown this year will be about five sixths of that of last year It is thought that this year's crop will be only a fair one even under very favorable circumstances as much of the grain is late sown

In Marion and Linn the farmers have made and are now making every exertion to put in their crops and a much larger acreage will be put in the present season than ever before. The spring crops are now being sown and early spring wheat never looked better than this year while the continued pleasant weather of the last two weeks has been favorable both for grain already up and for sowing Farmers all say winter wheat never looked better than now and the prospects for a good crop are much better than last year Ten thousand acres of flax have already been contracted for much of it is already up, and it looks splendid. At present there is every indication of an abundant harvest this year

The grain crop in Douglas and Josephine looks well and an abundant harvest is expected There will be more grain produced than last year The Umpqua Valley is well adapted to the production of grain the soil being a rich alluvial deposit and well watered The yield per acre ranges from 20 to 60 bushel

Wheat prospects in Washington county are as good or better than at this date last year The area in cultivation hardly equals last year From present indications there will be a greater breadth of spring wheat sown than last year Fruit prospects are splendid

The grain crop of Clackamas county looks exceedingly well—much better than at this time last year The breadth of land sown is about one third greater than for 1873

The San Francisco Bulletin of the 3d inst which contained detailed accounts from all sections of California and Oregon says

It is many years since so favorable a showing could be made in the first week of April Not only is the acreage in wheat much larger than ever before but the average yield per acre is also larger There never was so little complaint from the agricultural districts The rains have been seasonable but not excessive There have been no serious floods and no droughts Up to this time the north winds have not been troublesome Good judges estimate the wheat crop of the present year at 25 per cent more than last It will be remembered that long before a corresponding date last year the rains had ceased and the north winds were sweeping over the whole country By this means the crop in the San Joaquin Valley was nearly ruined According to the present outlook the rains have not ceased and even if no more rain should fall the crops would be assured over a large extent of country If favorable weather should continue for the next two weeks the crops in most places would be carried beyond the contingency of even partial failure

Grain and Provision Reports.

Chicago elevators at the commencement of business Monday March 23d contained 7 41 [illegible] bushels of grain embracing 169 0[illegible] bushels of wheat [illegible] bushels of corn 666 71[illegible] bushels of oats [illegible] bushels of rye and 2[illegible] bushels of barley against 7 677 1[illegible] bushels one week ago and [illegible] at this period last year

Milwaukee warehouses at the close of business on Saturday March 21st contained 2 [illegible] bushels of wheat 1[illegible] bushels of corn [illegible] bushels of oats 60 258 bushels of rye and [illegible] bushels of barley

New York warehouses contain [illegible] bushels of wheat [illegible] bushels of corn [illegible] bushels of oats 1 000 bushels of rye 11 000 bushels of barley 2 000 bushels of malt

The visible supply of grain in the United States and Canada March 14th was Wheat [illegible] bushels corn [illegible] bushels oats [illegible] bushels barley 78 271

The exports of breadstuffs and provisions from the ports of Portland New York Philadelphia Baltimore Boston and New Orleans for the week ending March 21st, were Flour 77 021 barrels wheat 600 221 bushels corn 718 613 bushels pork 114 barrels bacon 9,218 566 pounds lard [illegible] pounds

Miscellaneous.

The Mark Lane Express places the annual production of Indian corn in portions of Europe as follows France, 20 000 000 bushels Italy 40 000 000 bushels Austria 11 000 000 bushels Hungary 66 000 000 bushels Greece, 3,000 000 bushels Portugal 15,000,000 bushels. The total area seeded in corn is placed at 4 000 000 acres, and the production at 1 160,775 000 bushels.

Chinamen are employed in California as draft animals. Two Chinamen are harnessed to a wooden-toothed rake, which thus answers in lieu of a harrow where the ground is too wet to use the latter Over a thousand acres have been treated in this manner in Contra Costa county

The production of lumber last year on the Upper Mississippi and its tributaries is estimated at 1 03[illegible] 163 628 feet both logs and lumber being included The supply of logs on hand for the season of 1874 is estimated at 716 000 000 feet

Our San Francisco exchanges of the 31 inst say there is not a single disengaged vessel fit for the European grain carrying trade in that port The demand for such however was very light and several ships were due Rates to Liverpool were [illegible]

RAILROAD BUILDING

The opening work on the Olympia and Tenino Railroad was done by the people last Tuesday The following account is from the Courier of Wednesday

According to previous announcement the public square was made the place of rendezvous and at 8 A M the pealing of bell and booming of cannon sent out their signals that the time for action had come In a short time a long column of men arrived with picks shovels and axes led by the Olympia Band marched off the wharf and soon embarked for the scene of the contemplated day's operations —Warren's Point. This is a point about half a mile below Tumwater, on the west side of the Inlet, where the line of road will first reach tide water The depot will be at the west end of the Marshville bridge and the road from there to the point above mentioned—a distance of about a mile—will be constructed on piles From the point a grade of 80 feet per mile carries the road up to the main street in Tumwater Along this grade on the hillside was where the work yesterday was done In the morning a scared wolf could scarcely have forced his way along the same route where in the evening delicate women and little children could promenade for nearly one fourth of a mile At 10 o'clock the work had fairly begun and there was seen a rare sight Earnest determined men of all stations in life vied with each other in their laborious task Judges clergymen, lawyers doctors, merchants mechanics and laborers of all kinds were gathered side by side And no child's play was indulged in The engineer said that evening that he had never seen such a day's work done by the same number of men There were counted at one time 165 men from Olympia at work and enough more from Tumwater to swell the number to a round 200 Some 30 Chinamen have been employed and are now located on the ground with their little tents and usual camp equipage A comfortable house for the quarters of the white men has also been erected and supplied with food tables and bunks One week from to-morrow—April 10th—has been selected for another rally when it is expected that even a greater concourse will gather on the grade and on May day the country is to meet the town at Bush Prairie With hearts and souls in the work what can not be accomplished ere that day rolls round The following telegram was sent [illegible] and [illegible] self-explanatory
